

Construction Quality Control Manager

Construction Quality Control Manager – Central Florida

Qualified supervisor capable of reading, writing, and conversing fluently in the English language on the job site and having the following minimum qualifications:

- 10 Hour & 30 Hour OSHA Construction Safety Certification and shall maintain a current certificate
- Completed the course entitled "Construction Quality Management (CQM) for Contractors." and shall maintain a current certificate.
- Ten (10) years of combined experience as a Superintendent, QC Manager, Project Manager, or Project Engineer on similar size and type construction contracts ($1M to $7M),

- At least two years experience as a QC Manager,
- Preference for candidates with Department of Defense/Federal Project Experience
- Familiar with requirements of USACE EM 385-1-1 (US Army Corp of Engineers Health and Safety), and experience in the areas of hazard identification and safety compliance.
- Competent with computers (MS Word, MS Excel, MS Project, MS Outlook)
- Competent with design drawings and specifications
- Cost Estimating capabilities a plus
- Familiarity with the USACE Quality Control System (QCS) a plus
- Overall construction/environmental process knowledge.

Duties will include: Inspects and oversees construction of buildings, roadways, utilities, industrial facilities and other types of construction to assure that procedures, materials and workmanship comply with plans and specifications. Maintain records concerning materials received/used, construction progress, inspections activities, blueprint changes and other related information. Must be able to read and interpret construction drawings and specifications.